Online Compliance Training Solutions

MCQ International offers a range of high quality courses in key compliance areas, including a sophisticated delivery and training management platform enabling you to tailor courses and build customised training programs for your organisation. Our selection of Comprehensive Courses are aimed at professionals who require a high level of knowledge, such as executives, managers, and those with higher risk responsibilities (e.g., individuals with direct customer-facing roles, those who represent the organisation externally, and those who deal with other businesses).

Work Health and Safety

Australia's rigorous workplace safety legislation places the onus firmly on employers to ensure a safe working environment. This training provides key information and training that will enable all staff to protect and maintain the health and safety of everyone in the workplace.

Equal Employment Opportunity

This course offers a thorough introduction to concepts such as bullying, harassment, anti-discrimination and diversity. It outlines workers' rights and responsibilities, with a positive focus on the benefits of supportive workplaces.

Sexual Harassment Awareness

Sexual harassment remains the most prevalent form of harassment in the workplace. Providing proactive staff education, such as that provided by this course, is the most effective method of preventing unwelcome and harmful incidents.

Australian Privacy Law

The legal implications of the Privacy Act cut across many operational aspects of every organisation. This training teaches the legislated privacy principles and how to apply them real-world situations staff face everyday.

Information Security Awareness

Technology is so ubiquitous that we often take it for granted. Unfortunately, this means staff may not adequately consider the cyber security risks confronting them daily. This course aims to inform and ultimately change risky behaviours.

Restrictive Trade Practices

Serious penalties can be applied for any company breaching restrictive trade practices law, as well as significant potential reputational damage. This course explains in practical terms the the dos and don'ts of competition law.

Fair Trading Law

Do you know how your staff represents your organisation? What claims are made about your products and services? Do staff know their legal obligations? This course pro-actively minimises compliance risks through accessible education.
